PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1887.

MORONY FOUND AT LAST

HE SAYS HE ISN'T MELVILLE, BUT HE OPENS HIS LETTERS.

He is a Friend of Gen. Millen, but Insists that Millen Had Nothing to Do with the Dynamite Plot-Gen. Millen Arrived in the Edam Yesterday, and Morony shows Up To-Day-He Doesn't Know What Has Become of Melville.

"Am I Melville? Certainly not," said John J. Morony to-day, as he brought a goodsized fist down on his knee with surprising

Mr. Morony is the man whom the London detectives have declared is identical with Melville, the alleged dynamiter. He lives at 925 Tenth avenue. He is a man above the medium height, muscularly built. His complexion is dark, and a heavy black mustache half conceals a firm-looking mouth.

His emphatic denial that he was Melville was made to an Evening World reporter this morning. It had been reported that he was in England recently. This he denied, and declared that his trip only extended to Baltimore and that he knew nothing of Malville.

tended to Baltimore and that he knew nothing of Melville.

"But you have received letters addressed to that gentlemen?"

"Well, I don't want any newspaper talk, but you are so persistent I will tell you about Melville. Mr. Melville is an agent for a Now-York house, and he travels for them on the road. I have met him repeatedly, but only in a social way. He is a decent, honest fellow, and the assertion that he is a dynamiter absurd." iter absurd." Was Mr. Melville not in Europe recently?" Yes; that is, he told me he was going for a month's vacation. If he was such a dan-gerous man, why didn't the English detect-ives arrest him then?"

"Has Mr. Melville ever called on you at your house here or attended any meetings your house here or attended any meetings here?"

"No, he has never called at my house, neither have any meetings been Iteld here. Besides, what has Melville to do with the Irish question. He is an Englishman."

"It is said he resembles you in appearance, Mr. Morony. Does he?"

"No, he is a little taller and lighter than I am, about your complexion, I think. I wish I could find Melville. I would bring him down to The Evening World bring him down to The Evening World bring him down to The Evening world bring him the life out of me. I have been followed for weeks, and one day I stepped back and asked the man who was dogging my footsteps what he wanted. He replied, 'Nothing.' If I had only known what was the reason I could have settled it in a moment." You have not vet told me about any letters addressed to Melville in your care."

"I received one letter which I tore up?"
"Did you read it?"

"Did you read it?"

"Yes. It was not marked personal, and it bore an English stamp. I suspected a trick, so I read it."

"Have you any objection to stating what the contents were?"

"No. It was written in a woman's hand, and said: 'Will be glad to hear from you on that matter.' I don't remember the signa-Do you know that Gen. Millen has re-

"I heard of it this morning. He is an old friend of mine. I first met him about 1880, with some other gentlemen who were interested in the Irish question. He is too much of a gentleman and a soldier to embark in such a cowardly undertaking as has been attributed to him."

attributed to him."
It is said that you went to Paris, and there met Denehy, who is a friend of Gen.

Millen's?"

"Singular. I know Denehy, but I never met him any nearer to Paris than Brooklyn. I know, however, that he is as much opposed to dynamite as I am."

"How about your Boston trip, when you registered at Young's Hotel?'

"I have not been in Boston for months, and when I was there I did not stop at Young's, Perhaps it was Melville. He is full of tricks, and hearing of this matter, he might have done it easily?" might have done it as a joke."
Did you visit the Kennedys on Charles

"I don't know the Kennedys, but I have "I don't know the Kennedys, but I have friends on Charles street. (Mr. Morony here named several gentlemen, including J. and D. O'Connor, who are prominent members of the Irish Land League.) I also know John Rock O'Draille."

Boyle O'Reilly."

"Itis said that you go away on long trips without leaving word where you can be found." "I do go away on trips, but they are private business, and I never tell my wife my business."

Gen. F. F. Millen with his wife and daughter arrived in New York on the Edam yesterday. He denies that he had anything to do whatever with the dynamiters while in England. His trip was on private business.

Labor men can show their strength by votes for George. Let them show their sincerity by votes

VICTORY FOR JOHN J. O'BRIEN.

The Bureau of Elections Not Affected by the Civil-Service Law.

Judge Donohue has decided that the office of Chief of the Bureau of Elections does not come under the operations of the Civil-Service Law.

The decision was given in a suit brought by John J. O'Brien. The latter passed the civilservice examination ahead of all competitors, but preference was given to war veterans on the list sent to the Police Board.

Judge Donohue does not write an opinion of his own for the reason, he says, that the whole affair was gone over Aug. 6.
1884, by Judge Lacombe, then Corporation Counsel, in a letter to Mayor Edson. Mayor Edson had asked Mr. Lacombe for a construction of the civil-service rules, and he decided that in accordance with the provisions of section 8 of chapter 337 of the laws of 1884 the election officers then in office and inspectors of election and poll clerks should be exempt from examination.

tion.

Judge Donohue added: "The point is taken that the relator (Mr. O'Brien) did submit to an examination, and that, for so submitting, in some way he has lost his exemption under the act. It seems to me that there is no force in this position. It certainly cannot harm the position of the relator, if he is not within the terms of the act to submit to an examination that shows him to be the most competent of those examined for the most competent of those examined for the position."

Unless the Corporation Counsel appeals from this decision, and he has this right, a handamus will issue immediately directing that Mr. O'Brien's name be put first on the slighble like.

that Mr. O Brief a has just announced that the John J. O'Brien has just announced that the Labor inspeciors of Election will be aworn in between 8 and 9 o'clock to-night, and will serve to-

CHAMBERLAIN IS HERE.

this Morning-He Talks of a Treaty.

Passenger on the Etruria, Which Arrived

ERENELY smoking cigar, as placidly as though there were no such things in the world as fisheries disputes and Irish ques-Joseph Chambers.
Joseph Chambers.
stood on the deck of stood on the little revenue curter Manhattan this the people who were morning and surveyed the people who were waiting to meet him at the Governor's Island The Manhattan had been specially detailed by the authorities at Washington to meet Mr. Chamberlain and bring him from the Etruria to the city. Secretary Edwards of the British legation went down on the cutter to meet the gentle-Consul-General Booker could not brave the early morning freshness, so con-tented himself with greeting the distinguished visitor on the dock with William Smith, Dep-uty Minister of Marine, of Canada. Mr. Chamberlain doesn't look a day over forty. He wore a single everglass, not in the manner affected by anglomaniacs, but for use. His neat black overcoat, trimmed with astrakan, was buttoned up tightly to the throat. His head-gear was a canister hat. He was accompanied by T. H. G. Bergne, chief of the Treaty Department of the Foreign Office, London, and William A. Maycock, of the Commercial Branch of the Eversley Office

Maycock, of the Commercial Branch of the Foreign Office.

"Awful voyage," said Mr. Chamberlain, slipping his gloved hand into Mr. Booker's.

"Smashed boats, met gales and did all kinds of unpardonable things. Was I ill? My dear sir, believe me when I say that I never am. Have never been seasick in my life. Listen," said Mr. Chamberlain, "and let this be conclusive. I didn't miss a meal."

Mr. Chamberlain and his friends were then driven to the Brevoort. Those who have talked so much about Mr. Chamberlain and the Irish may smile when they hear that the

the Irish may smile when they hear that the cabby who drove the party was a Hibernian with a brogne an inch thick, and he was effusively differential and consummately

Mr. Chamberlain said little about his much-discussed mission, but he seemed extremely sanguine about it.

"If anticipate no trouble," he said. "Differences between two friendly nations must always arise from time to time upon points which touch the interests of both.
"If averagements are made, they will which touch the interests of both.

"If arrangements are made, they will probably involve a treaty, and Parliament will have an opportunity of pronouncing upon it before it is finally ratified. On our side—(a very slight emphasis on the pronoun)—I don't anticipate the least difficulty. I think that Parliament will be willing to ratify any arrangements I can make.

make.

"What I am extremely anxious to do," he went on, "either in course of the negotiations or afterwards, is to devote a couple of months to seeing America. I have never been here before, and I want to study the institutions." Chamberlain laughed at the idea that he had any detectives as a body-guard.

"The report that such is the case," he said, "is not unlike a good many others."

Mr. Chamberlain will remain in New York several days, contrary to supposition. He will then leave for Washington. He has a great many friends in the metropolis, and wants to

A vote for Post is a vote thrown away and half a vote for Fellows.

DAVID SCOTT HEARD FROM.

Letter Received Showing that He Intended to Commit Suicide, received by a friend of the missing man, on Thomas street, will show. The letter was dated Oct. 23, but was not posted until a day or two later and not received until the Saturday following. The language seems to suggest innocence of any criminal action with business associates and is evidently the last communication Scott sent. The letter is as follows:

N. Y. SUSPENSION BRIDGE, Oct. 28, 1887.
DEAR ALBERT: By the time this reaches you shall have gone to another world, but before the DEAR ALBERT: By the time this reaches you I shall have gone to another world, but before the final step I want to say some things and ask you to do some. For months—I may say two years—I have had no real sleep. Slept I have, but it was a disturbed and tireful sleep. I went to bed tired and rose more so. Now, with the idea of another life, there is a feeling of exultation that is difficult to put into words. Therefore I won't attempt it. I feel that I am to take a fest, which I have not had for twenty years.

Here follow a number of details in reference to guardianship and estate matters of one of his old friends, which it was important should be understood. The letter continues:

to on business matters, and I only ask you to remember me as we were. The fates have seemed against me. I have labored hard. Now it sover. Idon't know that I have much to regret. I have ried to be generous and just, despite was some and appearances may say. Yours faithfully

Thomas Vernon, senior member of the firm, still refuses to believe in the innocence of Scott. At the office on Duane street this morning, a pathetic dialogue occurred between that gentleman, and one who just as earnestly believes that Scott is innocent. He cannot, however, account for the missing money, but points to the letter as the vindicator of the probable suicide's name.

The people say, also, give young Nicoll a chance. The more feariess he is the more we like him. If he hates boodiers, so do we. If he wants to clean up the city and give these fellows their deserts, so do we. - New York Herald before its Flop.

Always Lands on His Feet. Mr. De Lancey Nicoli called at Police Headquarters this morning to see Supt. Murray on business connected with the District-Attorney's office. As he was leaving he slipped on the steps, but by a quick movement recovered himself and landed on his feet.

"He always lands on his feet," remarked a bystander, admiringly. "See if he don't tobystander, morrow."

An Alleged German Forger Caught. Johann Gottlieb Koch was arrested yesterday by Deputy Marshal Bernhard on the steamship Rugia, from Hamburg, on a charge of forging the name of F. J. Sanger, of Stuttgart, to drafts for several thousand marks. Kech comes from Goepinger, Wortemburg. He was committed to Ludiow Street Jali to-day.

Mr. Polhemus's List of Strikers. Typographical Union No. 6 has assessed its members five per cent. of their wages for the beneadmitted to a reporter to-day that he had the names of all the union men was were formerly in his employ, and initimated that they would not be employed by any of the members of the Typothese. Purse $200, of which $50 to the second, for all

OVER IN NEW JERSEY.

Twenty-fourth Day of the Autumn Meeting at Clifton.

A Large Crowd Enjoy Beautiful Weather and Some Excellent Racing.

The Winners and Placed Horses Were Traveller and Canonicus, Falsehood and Edward F., Joe Mitchell and Brillianteen, Garnett and Amber, Trade Dollar and Peter L.-Entries for To-Morrow.

Juidges—C. C. Wheeler and A. H. Battershy, Finer—W. H. Hawkhurst, Secretary—J. McGowan, Starter—Gabe Caldwell.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

BECOND BACK.

Purse $200, of which $50 to the second, for horses that had run and not won more than one race at the Clifton an umn meeting; selling allowances; if to be sold for $500 to carry 95 lb. trespective of age or sex, then 2 lb. for each $100 up to $700; seven furiongs. F. Wheston's b. c. Falsehood, by Falsetto, dam Zephyr, 103 (Bender)
Edward F., 108 (G. Taylor)
(G. Taylor)
(Junes)

Ram Lal, 95. (Griffith) 0
Vitelio, 99. (Goodale) 0
Zampa, 95. (Whaten) 0
Time—1.844. Betting—5 to 4 on Edward F., 9 to 5 against Belmont, 5 to 1 Quincy, 6 to 1 Falsehood, 15 to 1 each Ram Lal, Summer and Vitelio, and 30 to 1 Zampa. For a Place—5 to 2 on Edward F., 5 to 8 on Belmont, 6 to 5 Quincy, 2 to 1 Falsehood, 5 to 1 Sumner, 6 to 1 each Ram Lal and Vitello, 10 to 1 Zampa.

The Page Falsehood led from start to fin tello, 10 to 1 Zampa.

The Race.—Falsehood led from start to finish, winning by a length from Edward F., who was three lengths in front of Quincy. Mutuels paid: $20.90 on Falsehood to win, $7.45 for a place and $3.50 Edward F. for a place.

C. De Long's b. g. Joe Mitchell, aged, by Glengarry, d.m Kate Fisher, 98. (Taylor)
Brillianteen, 90 (Kelly)
Waukesha, 108 (P. Fitsparrick)
Lea, 100 (Bergan)

sha. Mutuels paid: Straight, $3.15; for place, $2.55; Brillianteen for a place, $3.65.

The fifth race was a dash of three-quarters of a mile for beaten horses, to carry 100 pounds each. Won by Trade Dollar (Coldier), Peter L. second, Queen of Hearts third. Time—1.19. Other starters: Mamie C., Rosetta, Binon, Peacock, Fellowship and Whizigi, Betting—4 to 1 Trade Dollar to win, S to 5 for a place, even money Peter L. for a place.

Election Day Races. There will be racing at the North Hudson Driving Park to-morrow, beginning at 1 P. M.

PIRST BACE. Purse $200, of which $50 to the second, for borses hat have run and not won at this meeting; three-dugitors or a mina.	Table 11 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1

Manual Control of the	Lb.
Telegraph	118 St. Luke 1
Fred Davis	118 Voucher 1
Vulcan	118 Editor 1
Mute	118 Campbell 1
Tantivy	115 Noxubee 1
Treasurer	. 115 Gien Almond 1
Ben Thompson	115 Sultor 1
John Alexander	115 Nina B 1
Miller	115 Suitor
	COND BACK.
	ch $50 to the second, for a
areas to carry 110 1	b. maidens allowed 10 lb.

1	three-quarters of a mile.
I	Clatter 107 Rosetta
Л	Bat ledore 107 Dick Dougan
	Hickory Jim 107 Burgundla
ì	Rostere 107 Value
9	Tony Pastor 107 Reform gelding
	Pagan 107 Commotion
П	Pagan 101 Commotion
	Dick Dougan late Eros.
k.	POTEN SACE

ages; selling allowances; horses entered to be sold for $300 to carry 100 lb., irrespective of age or sex, with 2 lb, added for each $100 up to $1,000; seven furlougs.

FOURTH RACE. Purse $200, of which $40 to the second, for all ages; selling allowances, horses entered to be sold for $3,500 to carry full weight; mile and a fur-long.

| Lb. | Hermitage | Change | 105 | Hermitage | Change | 103 | Banero | Big Head | 100 | Bizzard | | PIPTH BACK. Purse $200, of which $50 to the second, for two year-olds; to carry 110 lb., maidens allowed 10 lb. five furlongs.

SIXTH BACK.

The races at Clifton to-morrow will begin at 1 P.

t. The Eric Railroad will run extra trains direc

PURST RACE.

Purse $200, of which $50 to the second, for maiden three-year-olds and upward; to carry 110 lb., without allowances; three-quarters f a mile. Starling, Competitor, Comus, Brian Boru, Canonicis, Trojan, King Ban, Amanda Warren gelding, Ornament, Gold Bond.

BECOND BACE. Purse $200, of which $20 to the second; seiling allowances; horses entered to be sold for $300 to carry 95 lb., irrespective of age or sex, and 1 lb. additional for each $100 up; seven furiongs.

Lb.

THIRD RACE.

Purse $200, of which $50 to the second, for horses that have run and not won in the autumn of 1887; selling allowances; horses entered to be sold for $1,000, to carry full weight; one mile.

POURTH BACE.

Purse $200, of which $50 to the second, for three-year-olds; selling allowances; horses entered to be sold for $2,000 to carry full weight; seven furlongs.

El Trinidad 118 Siater Marie Hannibal 107 Eufaula Belmont 107 Widgeon False Note 106

FIFTH BACK.

BIXTH BACE.

Jockey Garrison Dangerously Ill.

Jockey Garrison is lying very ill at his home or Sixth avenue, Brooklyn. On Friday afternoon, shortly after the races at City course, he was attacked rrhage of the lungs. On advice of a ngton physician, he returned home at once, arriv under the care of several physicians.

but this morning he was reported as being a trifle better. This illness will end the jockey's chances

FIRED AT IN ANGER.

Young Lad Shot While Tearing Boards

Edward F. Worth, an eleven-year-old boy, amused himself on Sunday evening by earing down a portion of a fence near Advising the Grand Jury.

ing on Saturday morning.

of again riding this season.

course, he was attacked

Ivy

to the track. The entries are as follows:

Purse $200, of which $50 to the second, for all ages; to carry 20 ib, above the scale; seiling allowances; horses entered to be sold for $1,000 to carry full weight; mile and a quarter, over five hurdles.

CLIPTON RACE TRACE, N. J., Nov. 7 .- This is the twenty-fourth day of the autumn racing here, and as usual on Mondays the attendance is very large, the betting element being swelled by a big delegation from Washington. · The afternoon is a most enjoyable one in the matter of weather, and the track is in good shape. The results are as follows:

The Race.—Competitor led for half a mile, but was passed by Canonicus, who in turn was headed by Traveller, he winning by three lengths. Canonicus just got the place by a head from Gold Bond. Mutuels paid: Traveller to win, $8.80; for a place, $5; Canonicus for a place, $9.10.

THIRD RACE.

That David Scott, of the firm of Vernon Brothers & Co., has committed suicide, is now almost positive, as the following letter

The Race.—Brillianteen led to the head of the stretch, when Taylor brought Joe Mitchell to the front, winning by a length, Brillianteen the same distance in front of Wanke-

POURTH RACE.

Purse $250, of which $50 to the second, a handicap for all ages; mile and a sixteenth.

J. Edwards's b. f. Garnet, 4, by Falsetto dam
Gondols, 100 (Kelly)
Amber, 26 (G. Taylor)
Charley Russell, 105 (P. Fitzpatrick)
Lancaster, 112 (Whyburn)
Time—1.55%. Betting—6 to 5 against Garnet, 2 to 1 Lancaster, 3 to 1 each Charley Russell and Amber. Place—6 to 5 on Garnet, 5 to 4 Lancaster, 6 to 5 Amber and Charley Russell. POURTH RACE.

The Race.-Garnet led all the way, winning by three lengths, the same distance between second and third. Mutuels paid: Garnet, straight, $6; for a place, $2.95; Amber, for a place, $3.55.

PIPTH BACK

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. KANSAS CITY, Nov. 7. -This is the first extra day's racing at Waldo Park, and, to the great disappointment of the officials of the association, the entries for the purses were very small. The first race was for maiden four-year-olds and upward, at three-quarters of a mile Sayres, at 118 lb., won, with Longway second and the Glengarry-Henrietta colt third. Time—1.29. Betting—3 to 5 syainst Sayres to win, 3 to 1 on for a place and 5 to 4 on Longway for a place. I the second race was a dash of a mile for all ages, selling allowances. It was won by Sour Mash at 100 lb., with Biddy Bowling second and Jack Brown third. Time—1.44%. Betting—2 to 1 on Sour Mash to win, no place, 3 to 3 against Biddy Bowling for a place.

The third race was a dash of seven furlongs for all ages. Carnegie, at 123 pounds, was first, Freeman second and Surprise third. Time—1.31. Betting—4 to 1 on Carnegie, no place, and 5 to 3 on Freeman for a place. lay's racing at Waldo Park, and, to the great

In charging the Grand Jury for the November Perm of the Courts of General Sessions this morning. Judge Cowing directed them to be very morning, studge cowing directed them to be very careful in consideration of cases brought be fore them in the first instance, as many anch cases are brought by vindictive persons. It is much better, he said, to consider only cases which come to them in the regular way, after nearing before a magnetrate where the accused has had an opportunity to defend himself in an examination. This was considered by many present as an in frect referconsidered by many present as an in frect refer-ence to the recent attempt to Indict Jay Gould and Russell Sage. George C. Magoun is the foreman of the Grand Jury.

Isidor Coknfeld's Affairs. Julius J. Frank, attorney for Isidor Cohnfeld, the missing feather merchant, takes but httle stock in the pitiful story told by George H. Lichtenheim, who has attached Cohnfeld's property for $70,000. He says that after an examination of the accounts Mr. Lichtenheim will not appear such a much abused man as he represents himself. He further says that the stores of Mr. Cohnfeld's extravagant habits are not true.

A Little Girl's Body Found in the River. Polloeman McDonaghue found the body of a little irl about four years old in the East River at the foot of Thirty-first street to-day. It is supposed that the child died a natural death and that its par-ents were too poor to bury it.

Sullivan Ready for Mitchell. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
LÖNDON, NOV. I. -John L. Sullivan has notifie Mitchell that he will meet him to-morrow and make a match for a fight, provided Mitchell brings for-felt money with him.

ENGEL TAKES POISON

Attempt to Commit Suicide in the Chicago Jail.

Found Prostrate and Groaning

He Preferred Death by His Own Hand Rather Than by Law.

Startling Discoveries Made by the Prison Officials.

> The Desperate Anarchist Took a Dose of Laudanum Saturday Night, and the Keeper Heard His Groans-Dr. Gray Summoned, and He Finally Succeeded in Restoring the Man to Consciousness Engel Curaed the Physician for Awaken ing Him, and at First Denied that He Had Attempted to Take His Own Life-Forced to Admit His Guilt-This Was What Lad to the Placevery of the Rombe in Lingg's Cell-Engel Stubbornly Refuses to Tell Where He Got the Poison.

> > SEPROIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

About 11.20 o'eloek GEORGE ENGEL. Emil Coenet, who is on the night death-watch, passed Engel's cell and was attracted by groans coming from within. On stopping to inquire the cause he found Engel breathing heavily and lying prostrate on his back. He called him by name, but received no answer, and opening the cell door discovered that the man was unconscious, and suffering from the effects

Engels's cell the bottle from which he had taken the laudanum. Three or four drops of laudanum still remained in the bottle, and Engel was confronted with the evidence of his intended suicide. He mitted the truth of the accusation. He preferred death by his own band, he said, to any carrying out of a sentence under the law. Engel stubbornly refused to disclose how he obtained the poison.

CHICAGO AND THE ANARCHISTS.

The Condemned Men Are Now the Focus of

The Condemsed Men Are Now the Focus of all Interest.

[EFECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

CHICAGO, NOV. 7,—The Anarchists are now the focus of all interest. The publication of the fact that bombs were found in Lingg's cell, that Engel had procured poison, that a bold attempt had been made to blow up the jail, and that the tearing down a portion of a fence near his house, 328 East Seventy-first street. Bernard Deckert, sixty-two years old, saw him at work and ordered him to desist. The boy laughed at the old man, knowing that as he was at the rear window of his home at 305 East Seventieth street, he could not reach him to inflict personal chastisement, and tantanizingly tore out board after board from the fence.

Deckert lost his temper and taking deliberate aim with a revolver, fired. The flash was followed almost instantaneously by a cry of pain. The Worth boy pressed his hand to his side and screamed: "Oh, God, I am shot."

Deckert retired to his room. He was arrested by the police and taken to the station-house, while Worth was carried home suffering from a very serious wound. poison, that a bold attempt had been made to blow up the jail, and that the Governor has been threatened with vengeance if he fails to pardon, has produced a profound sensation. That the amnesty movement has received a decided check goes without saying. Hundreds of those who signed in favor of mercy express themselves to-day as sorry.

The theory advanced by the friends of the Anarchists that the bombs were placed in Lingg's cell by the police is not well received. The police have no need to resort to such measure and, besides, disinterested persons are witnesses to Lingg's cautions tactics to try and get back to his cell, ostensibly for his coat, when he saw the cell was about to be searched.

How the bombs got into the cell, and for what purpose they were used, is a matter of many conjectures. The meshes of the visitors cage are broken in several places sufficiently to admit of an inch pipe being passed. Again they may have been introduced in loaves of bread or packages of other provisions with which their friends have regularly supplied the condemned men, bombs were found and that there are four men who have steadfastly refused to sign a petition for pardon. It is surmised by some that a conspiracy existed between these four, Engel, Parsons, Fischer and Lingg, to use the bombs on the day of the execution to in His Cell.

CHICAGO, NOV. 7. NOT the least remarkable phase of the bomb discovery is that it came about from the fact that Anarchist George Engel attempted suicide Saturday night by taking an ounce of laudanum.

continued to deny, but at last sullenly ad-

TO LABOR VOTERS.

Shall Your Votes Count for NICOLL, is the Cause of HONEST GOVERNMENT. or be Wasted on POST?

OST

WASTE

Van Zandt would find it impossible to smuggle rend rock under her dainty skirts to her wildeyed husband in the second degree-

No visitors except their legal advisers are allowed to talk to the seven. Visitors are only admitted to the pen, and must converse through double gratings with a corridor and vigilant keepers between. No more poison will be introduced, for baskets of dainties brought them are refused the prisoners.

By courtesy of Sheriff Matson I was admitted to the jail early this morning. The building is guarded by a swarm of detectives and police, whose scouts and pickets are posted a block from the building in every direction. Within the corridor was Capt. Black, pale and nervous as though his own execution was approaching. A buxom and fiery-faced woman, gifted with volubility and several yards of ponderous gold chain, had button-holed him and kept a desperate clutch on his attentions, while she insisted that the Anarchists should not be murdered in ing the cell door discovered that the man was unconscious, and suffering from the effects of some stupefying drug.

After repeated attempts to awake the sleeping man, Coenett became alarmed and decided to call in Dr. Gray from the insane ward in the same building.

Dr. Gray was sent for immediately, and on going to Engel's cell the doctor soon discovered that Engel was suffering from poison, His eyes were dilated and rolled spasmodically. Dr. Gray at once commenced active work on his patient.

As soon as Engel came to his senses, he raved and cursed and asked the reason of his being awakened. He protested that he had only drank a little whiskey and was all right. His condition and subsequent events showed that he was deliberately lying. He was at once forced to take emetics and kept constantly walking for an hour until all danger had passed. From that time on the surveillance over him was not relaxed for an instant.

Besides the discovery of explosives among the effects of Lingg, there was found in Engels's cell the bottle from which respect to feature he is not ill-looking, but he has the face and expression of a most desperate man. His hair is brushed straight back from a high, square forehead, his face was colorless, his lips were set in quiet lines of grim endurance and courage. There was a defiant scowl on his brow, and his clear blue eyes flashed defiantly through the bars on all comers. He looks the fanatic his deeds, have proclaimed him, and I can readily believe his willingness to go to the scaffold rather than sign any document of recantation. He looks like a dangerous animal wounded and at bay, unfinching and untamable.

and at bay, unflinching and untamable.

The other prisoners were almost invisible in the gloom of their cells. Engel has a splitting headache, the result of his laudanum attempt at suicide last night, but is out of denor.

is not much excitement at this hour—noon. There has set in, however, a strong revulsion against the amnesty movements.
HENRY GUY CARLETON.

Eleven More Bombs Found.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CHICAGO, Nov. 7. -It is reported late this afteroun that the police have discovered eleven dynanite bombs which were secreted in the house of an Anarchist near the gas works on West Division

The police were working on the case all day resterd y, and have kept their discovery very quiet. The matter, when it became known, caused great excitement in the vicinity of the jail. Mr. Nicoll is a peculiar man. He doesn't care a rap whether the accused is rich or poor.

If he is poor and a scoundrel, up he goes to Sing Sing. If he is rich and a scoundrel, why, up he goes to Sing Sing just the same. In his administration there is not one law for the capitalist and another for the wage-worker .- New York Herald before its Flop. Thomas C. Gray's Sudden Death. Deputy Corone O'Meagher to-day brought to the Coroner's office a report of the sudden death yesterday of Thomas C. Gray, who kept a lunch-counter in the Stock Exchange. The man lived in a flat a 1828 Third avenue, and was very comfort-ably situated. Gray lives a very rettred life and, so far as is known, had no relatives in this city. Rumor says that he has a snug sum of money and varuables somewhere, and a key found on his per-son is thought to belong to some safe-deposit vault.

An Old Lundmark Burned.

One of the old landmarks known as the Silliman on the day of the execution to destroy the guards as well as themselves, and thus go out in a glorious Anarchistic manner, hoist on their own petard.

There will be no more bomb passing to the prisoners. Even pallid and sentimental Nina

BOSS POWER'S LATEST DEAL

PRICE ONE CENT.

HAS HE THE PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

IN HIS HAND? Club Held To-day-It is Alleged that the Progressives are to Run Fellows's Ticket

Lucien Saniel and William Martin, repreenting the Progressive Labor party, were closeted to-day at the New Amsterdam Club with Boss Maurice J. Power and a part of the time with Henry R. Beekman, President of the Board of Aldermen, from 11.30 A. M. to

T. B. Wakeman, counsel for the Progressives, was present part of the time, but was obliged to leave to attend to the argument before the General Term of the fifth inspector question.

cording to the best authority, to bunch Fellows tickets and the Democratic Judiciary ticket with the Progressive Labor party the bills for printing and for litigation growing out of the contest over the inspectors of election should be paid by Power. After the conference had ended, at 3.30

We have not these fellows in our hand," At the same time he illustrated his remark by extending his hand and closing his fin-

The Progressive Labor party leaders retheir mission.

An Attempted Fraud Alleged to Have Boon

Gen. Knapp, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, said this afternoon that a colonizing scheme had been discovered in Troy.

A short time ago, he said, the Republican State Committee became aware that attempts at colonization were being made in some of the low dens of Troy by the Democrats. The committee secured the services of Pinkerton detectives, who went to Troy and mingled with men mixed up in the affair. The suspicions of the Democrats were aroused, and they intercepted some letters from the Rapublican State Committee to the detectives.

With this proof the Democrats confronted the detectivess and ordered them to leave Troy within a specified time.

Two of the detectives obeyed this command, one coming to New York with all the proofs required by the State Committee, the other stopping at Albany and returning again to Troy. Fortunately, Gen. Knapp said, the colonizers discovered only two of the detectives, the others still mingling with the suspected men.

Gen. Knapp showed the reporter a number of large blue cavelopes which, he said, contained affidavits and proofs of the colonization. The committee last night sent instructions by messenger to Troy, which will be acted upon immediately.

Gen. Knapp refused to make public the names of the persons implicated.

It May Cause His Death, but He Says Ho Received It Accidentally. James McLaughlin, who walked uncon cernedly into Bellevue Hospital with two companions last night, smoking a cigarette, while he had a dangerous stab wound in the cannot say yet whether he will recover or not.

McLaughlin refused to tell who his assailant was, or what led to his being stabbed, until the Coronor arrived to take an antimortem statement. He then said he had been skylarking with three young fellows in East Eighteenth street. One of them, Thomas Rosentiehl, had an open knife in his hand. McLaughlin was pushed against it, and it was driven into his abdomen. Rosentiehl is under arrest.

McLaughlin is eighteen years old, a driver and lived at 507 East Thirteenth street.

If the honest workingmen want to smash Boss ism, Boodleism and Ring Rule; Other want to hit hard at Fellows, Powers and Hereitt; O they want to protest against Treedism, Inequality, Infe and Corruption, they will vote straight for Nicoll.

Arrested on the Minnesota. Siegfried Hirschfeld, of the United States Navy.

Conscience Money From a Smuggler. When Collector Magone opened his me mail to-day he found one letter bearing the New York postmark, in which was inclosed a one hundred dolar bill Accompanying the money was this note: "Conscience mon y due Uncle Sam, from a smuggler." The money was at once forwarded to Washington as the latest incre-ment to the "conscience fund."

Death of Broker J. P. Rutter. Mr. J. P. Rutter, a member of the firm of Rus fair weather; light to fresh south westering winds; tearmer to-mor-ros morning in the scenters portion, folloseed tionary temperature in eastern portion. For Eastern New York: Jair weather; fresh to brisk southwesterly winds, shifting to westerly

Long Conference at the New Amsterdam and that in Return Power is to Pay the 2.30 P. M. It is alleged that the meeting was for the purpose of making a "deal" in regard to the election to-morrow.

The offer was made and agreed upon, ac-

On the other hand, it was provided that

P. M., Boss Power came out and remarked to a friend :

fused to say anything concerning their long conference with Power, but they went sway in a mood indicating that they had fulfilled

COLONIZING CHARGED IN TROY.

JAMES M'LAUGHLIN'S WOUND.

abdomen; was reported at the hospital to be doing well to-day. The doctors in charge cannot say yet whether he will recover or Siegfried Hirschfeld, of the United States Navy, was arrested on board the United States steamship Minnesota for having embeszled $40. Hirschfeld was employed as collecting agent for the Industrial Branch of the Metropolitan Insurance Company at 7 East Fourteents street. He collected various sums of money which he falled to turn in, kept them and destroyed the books. Then he joined the navy. Supt. C. P. Williams made a charge of larceny against him this morning in the Jefferson Market Police Court, and he was held.

ter & Gross, bankers and brokers, died yesterday. He had been a member of the Stock Exchange

Prob Says Get Out Your Henvy Conts. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 .-

by couter toeather, sta-

If they want to throw away their votes they eote for Post.